Re: RJR Nabisco Consent Solicitation

Dear ((Title)) ((Last Name)):

As you know, Brooke Group is soliciting consents from RJR Nabisco shareholders to support an immediate spinoff of the company's remaining 80.5% interest in Nabisco and to reinstate certain provisions of the company's Bylaws. We are currently on a roadshow visiting individually with RJR's largest institutional shareholders. We regret that we are unable to meet with you, however, we have enclosed our roadshow presentation to assist you in your decision-making process.

As you are aware, RJR Nabisco common stock has grossly underperformed all other tobacco stocks and the overall market since its IPO in 1991. We believe that separating RJR tobacco and Nabisco through an immediate spinoff of Nabisco will enhance the performance of both companies and increase the value of your investment. As outlined in our solicitation materials and the enclosed presentation materials, we believe management's arguments against an immediate spinoff are entirely without merit. Seize this opportunity to send a message to the RJR Nabisco Board that you want a spinoff of Nabisco now.

We strongly urge you to vote in favor of our consent proposals. Please remember that you must sign, date and deliver a BLUE CONSENT CARD by February 15, 1996 to assure that your vote is counted. If the BLUE CONSENT CARD is not returned, you will have effectively voted against an immediate spinoff.

If you have questions or need more information about Brooke's consent solicitation, please feel free to call me, Andrew Balog or Michael Wainstein at (212) 826-2800.

Sincerely,

MARC N. BELL
